1. Subject Matter of License Agreement

The subject matter of this Agreement is the German User-Generated Repair Instruction Corpus Version 1.0, i.e., the latest version available and released for distribution prior to execution of this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Data" or the "Corpus").

2. Permitted and Prohibited Uses

2.1. The Data may be used solely for academic and research purposes only.

2.2. User shall not publish, retransmit, display, redistribute, reproduce or commercially exploit the Data in any form, except that User may include limited excerpts from the Data in articles, reports and other documents describing User's research.

3. Publication credit

3.1. User agrees to acknowledge the Licensor by citing the following publication in any publication or presentation containing research results obtained in whole or in part through the use of the Data:

Thiemo Wambsganss and Christian Engel (2021) "Using Deep Learning for Extracting User-Generated Knowledge from Web Communities" In: Twenty-Ninth European Conference on Information Systems (ECIS 2021), Marrakesh, Morocco.

4. Copyright Notice and Disclaimer

4.1. The annotations in the Data are the property of Licensor and is protected by applicable copyright law. In no event shall User publish, retransmit, display, redistribute, or otherwise reproduce any or all of the Data in any format to anyone, except as allowed in Section 2 of this agreement.

4.2. The essays in this corpus have been collected from online sources and are not copyrighted by the Licensor. The User acknowledges that the use of these essays is restricted to research and/or academic purposes only.

4.3. User Acknowledges and agrees that the Data is provided on an "asis" basis and that the Licensor make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or conformity with whatever documentation is provided. In no event shall the Licensor be liable for special, direct, indirect, consequential, punitive, incidental or other damages, losses, costs, charges, claims, demands, fees or expenses of any nature or kind arising in any way from the furnishing of, or User's use of the Data.
